

CONCIERGE'S TOP HIDDEN THINGS TO DO IN CHARLESTON

Located in the Lobby, the Concierge can open doors, offer suggestions or help you plan an adventure in Charleston. All you have to do is ask. Plus, we have access to several activities not offered to typical Charleston visitors.

Below is a list of excursions we can arrange that guests would not find on their own.
(Please note: advance notice is required.)

1. Exclusive private walking tour of Charleston's private gardens in the historic district, by native author and expert, Louisa Pringle Cameron.
 2. Tee time at either the Seabrook Island or Daniel Island Clubs, both which are closed to the public.
 3. Charter of the sailing yacht, The Fate, which is a privately owned 49-foot Beneteau that sleeps up to six people.
 4. A private driving tour of "Little Jerusalem" by Fran Bennett, including Temple Beth Elohim, the oldest reform synagogue in the world.
 5. An exclusive "behind-the-scenes" tour of the Calhoun Mansion.
 6. A morning or afternoon of horseback riding along the beach at Seabrook Island.
 7. A private flying tour, either by Cessna or helicopter.
 8. Explore African-American history in the Lowcountry and the surrounding sea islands with a private Gullah driving tour.
 9. Enjoy the top culinary destination in the nation with a personalized culinary walking tour of local kitchens and neighborhoods.
 10. For a special occasion, savor a private dinner in a historic home with a famous local chef.
-

MEET THE CONCIERGES

Our Concierge team can make your stay even more memorable with recommendations and reservations to Charleston's best places.

Rick Burton
Chief Concierge

Elizabeth Urban

Sarah Norvell

Larry Crosby

Daniel Linas

Robert Ball

Lobby Concierge: Ext. 8725 or 843 937 8725
Club Level Concierge: Ext. 8735 or 843 937 8735

Visit our Blog:
HIDDENCHARLESTON.COM

205 Meeting Street, Charleston, SC 29401
CHARLESTONPLACE.COM

